

ELEVATE YOUR VOICE

Are you an early career professional accountant or aspiring to be one? Here's your chance to make a difference, gain valuable international exposure, and interact with other professionals from around the world.

Apply Today to Join the IFAC Young Leaders Collective

The International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) is establishing its IFAC Young Leaders Collective to learn from the perspectives of early career and aspiring professional accountants—the future leaders of the global profession. We are seeking insights and perspectives from you on some of the biggest challenges and opportunities facing the profession and some of IFAC's most important initiatives, including sustainability, fighting corruption, artificial intelligence, and attracting and retaining talent.

WHY JOIN US?

By becoming a member of the Collective, you'll have the opportunity to:

Influence the direction of the global accountancy profession.

Gain valuable international exposure by working with an organization with global reach as well your peers from around the world.

Deepen your understanding of the crucial issues the profession faces, such as the growing need for sustainability reporting and assurance, the effects of AI and technology on the profession, and the importance of focusing on anti-corruption efforts in our work.

WHAT'S THE COMMITMENT?

One year of voluntary service, with the possibility of a one-year renewal.

Participating in four two-hour virtual meetings per year.

Preparing for meetings, which may include reviewing meeting papers, consulting with your peers, and conducting your own informal research.

Potentially representing the Collective in other IFAC forums.

TOTAL TIME COMMITMENT:
30-40 HOURS PER YEAR

HOW TO APPLY?

Ready to join us?
Follow these steps:

Complete the online application by clicking here.

Record and upload a two-minute audio/video explaining why you're passionate about accountancy and joining the Collective.

Upload a letter of recommendation from a non-family member. The letter can be from professional, academic, or volunteer connections. Preference will be given to applications with a letter of recommendation from an IFAC member organization, IFAC network partner, or Forum of Firms member.

WHO IS IFAC?

IFAC is the global voice for the accountancy profession. We serve the public interest or public good through advocacy, development, and support for our 180 member organizations in 135 jurisdictions and the millions of professional accountants around the world who are crucial to our global economy.
